weekend. I haven't talked to a lobbyist or been in communication in any way, shape or form. I would say to Senator Cavanaugh that it also takes courage to recognize the errors of ones ways and reverse the decision that we made last week. I think this is what we're doing in regard to corporation tax. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Warner. Senator Koch.

SENATOR KOCH: Mr. President, members of the body. I would make one more point which I think is more evident than anything else we've done this morning. It really isn't the corporates. What we've done this morning is we say we're going to live by the Governor and his budget. The Governor has been in Omaha a week, as you know, telling the people about what wild, reckless individuals we are. I think what he has said over the weekend has had more effect than what anyone else has said. I'm terribly disappointed to sit here and watch us cave in to what I think our obligation should be. We are the individuals who should make the decisions based upon expenditures and programs. Once again, it's the monopoly of the executive branch who has really won the battle, not the legislators, not the corporations.

PRESIDENT: Senator Mills.

SENATOR MILLS: Mr. President, members of the body. I rise not to support Senator Keyes amendment but to bring to your attention that I am going to, since these amendments have changed our funding completely here in the state, ask that we recall LB 368A. I no longer see how we can afford the state aid to education. I'm very sorry to have to do that. I voted for 368A because we were and had taken the nerve to appropriately fund and see that there were monies coming in to the state treasury. I no longer see how we can justify this appropriation. I will move to bring LB 368A back for reconsideration in this body.

PRESIDENT: That's out of order. Whatever else it was, it was out of order, Senator. Senator Keyes, do you want to close argument on your amendment?

CLERK: Mr. President, I have an amendment to the Keyes amendment, which ...

PRESIDENT: Yes, that's got to be. What is it?

CLERK: I move to amend the Keyes amendment to provide that the corporate tax shall apply to netted corporate income after federal tax. Signed, Senator Murphy.

PRESIDENT: I'm afraid that we can't have an amendment to an amendment to an amendment. That's out of order, Senator Murphy. Please close argument.
